Main Activities

Protection, Advocacy & Solutions

- In China's mainland, UNHCR ensures access to the right to seek asylum through registration, documentation and by performing Refugee Status Determination (RSD) in the absence of a national system. In Hong Kong SAR, the authorities conduct the Unified Screening Mechanism (USM) and UNHCR reviews substantiated claimants with a view to pursuing solutions for them, including resettlement, as well as other opportunities.
- In China's mainland, UNHCR actively engages with the National Immigration Administration on operational matters relating to refugee protection within China and offers its expertise in support of the development of relevant policies and laws. In Hong Kong SAR, UNHCR provides technical advice and training to support authorities' efforts in developing and implementing the USM in line with accepted international standards.
- In China's mainland, UNHCR provides limited direct financial support intended to cover essential food, shelter and health needs of nearly 85% of the refugee population in the absence of other providers of assistance. In Hong Kong SAR, the Social Welfare Department provides basic food and shelter to asylum-seekers and refugees delivered through a civil society organization and supplemented by private contributions. Asylum-seekers in Macao SAR are eligible for full social welfare assistance while their applications are pending, equal to Macao citizens. As UNHCR does not have a permanent physical presence in Macao, UNHCR partners with Caritas for practical assistance and signposting to asylum-seekers and refugees.
- UNHCR seeks solutions for refugees by pursuing opportunities for resettlement to third countries, while identifying and advocating for complementary pathways to access third countries through alternative safe and regulated avenues, including labour and education opportunities.

- In December 2019 China co-sponsored the high-level dialogue on Jobs and Livelihoods at the Global Refugee Forum and 3 partners from the Hong Kong private sector pledged to enhance labour opportunities and legal aid to persons of concern.

Awareness Raising & Resource Mobilisation

- UNHCR works through traditional media, online platforms, social media, events and influencers to raise awareness about its work among the Chinese public. UNHCR has nearly 500,000 followers across its Weibo account, two WeChat accounts and a Hong Kong SAR Facebook account. For World Refugee Day the office organises activities including film festivals in Beijing and Hong Kong SAR, photo exhibitions and participates in major public events such as the Hong Kong SAR book fair. UNHCR works with National Goodwill Ambassador, actress Yao Chen to raise awareness and generate empathy. Since 2013, she has undertaken field missions to the Philippines, Thailand, Ethiopia, Lebanon and Pakistan. In addition, UNHCR introduces youth to refugee issues through school and university lectures and welcoming Chinese student groups to its offices to learn about UNHCR's work and career opportunities.
- At the 2016 UN General Assembly Summit on Refugees and Migrants, China pledged USD100 million under the China-UN Peace and Development Fund and USD300 million in bilateral and multilateral assistance at the Leaders' Summit to address the global refugee crisis. In addition to its USD800,000 annual contribution to UNHCR, the Chinese Government has supported UNHCR field projects in Africa, Asia and the Middle East through China Aid. China also funds the deployment of 10 Junior Professional Officers to UNHCR's global operations and Macao SAR funds the deployment of 3 paid interns.
- Over USD11 million in private funding was raised in Hong Kong and Macao SARs through donations in 2019. UNHCR is also building support among the corporate sector, commercial chambers and foundations throughout China.
- UNHCR also conducts private sector outreach to publicize procurement opportunities and to further engage Chinese companies in its global supply and logistics operations.
